PROCLAMATION DECLARING A STATE OF Local Emergency in Wasatch County

WHEREAS, Wasatch County, Utah has suffered and is suffering from severe damage due to recurring flooding from heavy rain, snow, and snow pack runoff leading up to June 24, 2011.

WHEREAS, the projections for cumulative water from snow pack runoff exceed previous recorded totals; and

WHEREAS, by reason of the conditions created by the recurring flooding and the impact on both unincorporated and incorporated areas of Wasatch County; and

WHEREAS, the flooding may affect the areas of Wasatch County; and

WHEREAS, continued flooding is expected over the next few days; and

WHEREAS, continued flooding is expected over the next few days; and

WHEREAS, these conditions do create a "State of Emergency" according to local and state statutes; and

WHEREAS, the following conditions exist and are ongoing:

1. Extensive damage to roads, culverts, and bridges
2. Flooding of public facilities and infrastructures
3. Flooding of homes and property

NOW THEREFORE, pursuant to Utah Code Annotated, 63K-4301 (1953, as amended), on behalf of the people of Wasatch County, the Wasatch County Executive declares Wasatch County to be in a state of "Local Emergency".
